In this section a book prize was also given to John Paul Garrett who is only 5 years old but who won a game. This has to be some kind of record!

The tournament was a good day with no problems and just over 200 people participating.

During the day we were joined by Gerry Walsh who is President of the British Chess Federation. He made a 'Lifetime services to chess' award to one of the controllers, John Robinson and a Life Vice President award to Roy Woodcock.

With thanks to Jonathan Rashleigh

Great Britain Win World Chess Solving Championship

The 29th World Chess Solving Championship, held in Eretria, Greece, on 6th-7th September was a great success for the Great Britain team of Jonathan Mestel, John Nunn and Michael McDowell, who won the gold medal with 158.5 points from a possible 180, ahead of defending World Champions Israel (155.5) and European Champions Finland (148.5). The British team, who were sponsored by Winton Capital Management, were the first to win the event outright since 1986. Mestel and Nunn were in excellent form, taking silver and bronze respectively in the individual World Championship, which was won by the highest rated competitor, Piotr Murdzia of Poland. The Open Solving event, which precedes the World Championship, was won by Nunn, with Mestel taking silver and Boris Tummes of Germany bronze.

The solving events are a highlight of the annual World Congress of Chess Composition, which also features composing competitions. Successful British composers in this year's tourneys were Colin Sydenham, Tony Lewis, Michael McDowell, Jonathan Mestel, Colin McNab, and Christopher Jones, who also gained the title of FIDE Master for Composition.

29th World Chess Solving Championship (Eretria, Greece), 6th - 7th September 2005

Team results - the final standing:

1. Great Britain (J.Nunn, J.Mestel, M.McDowell) 158.5 points (579 min.)
2. Israel (R.Soffer, O.Comay, M.Erenburg) 155.5 (653)
3. Finland (P.Perkonoja, J.Paavilainen, K.Karhunen) 148.5 (647)
4. Poland (P.Murdzia, B.Piliczewski, Z.Szczep) 148 (680)
5. Germany (B.Tummes, A.Zude, M.Pfannkuche) 145.5 (680)
6. Slovakia (L.Salai, E.Klemanic, M.Kolcak) 135.5 (648)
7. Netherlands (D.Wissmann, P.v.d.Heuvel, H.Uitenbroek) 135.5 (704)
8. Romania (V.Crisan, D.Nicula, E.Huber) 135 (699)
9. Serbia & Montenegro (M.Kovacevic, S.Radovic, B.Gadjanski) 132.5 (670)
10. Switzerland (R.Baier, J.Kupper, T.Maeder) 126.5 (693)

15th European Team Championship 2005

The 15th European Team Championships ran from 30 July to 7 August in Gothenburg, Sweden. There were separate men's/open and women's competitions, over nine rounds, with 41 and 27 teams respectively. Each team was composed of four boards (from five-player squads).

England - McShane (2625), Speelman (2549), Gormally (2557), Wells (2529, capt), N.Pert (2493); Scotland - McNab (2451), Shaw (2449), Muir (2322), Upton (2250), Grant

(2273); Wales - R.Jones (2320), Trevelyan (2196), Kett (2192), Spice (2175), D.James (2213); Ireland - Baburin (2523), Kelly (2504), Collins (2403), Orr (2305). England women: J.Houska (2342, captain), S.Lalic (2362), H.Richards (2150), I.Lauterbach (2156), J.Gilbert (2151); (no other UK or Irish women's teams entered)

There were a number of weird parallels between the English men's and women's teams' performances; they were both seeded 18th, finished 13th, their top boards both scored 6/9, third boards scored 5½/8 and fourth boards scored below par.

TERAFINAL & CHALLENGERS RESULTS

TOURNAMENT HELD AT THE SOURCE, SHEFFIELD, 2005

The UK Chess Challenge finals were held in Sheffield over the weekend of 20th and 21st August. Stephen Gordon (pictured right) of the 3C's club in Manchester secured the top prize. This victory came on top of a successful foray into the British Chess Championships earlier in the month, where Stephen outplayed a series of top Masters and Grandmasters to take 6th place. Stephen won 5 out of his 6 games, and only had difficulty in round 4 against E Josiah Lutton, where an optically strong position could easily have turned against him. Fortunately for Stephen, Josiah took a draw and then went on to lose his last two games, whereas Stephen did the opposite.

Sabrina Chevannes of Staffordshire also took the £500 prize for top girl player, and finished in 2nd place overall, beating the higher rated Jonathan Lappage along the way to upset the form book.

For a long time the Under 11 prize, which was also £500, was in doubt and several players could have won it in the last round. With half an hour of the playing session still to go, Danae Kokossis held a slender lead, but there was one game still to finish between Tom Huband and Craig Whitfield. Craig Whitfield was pressing throughout the game but Tom held him off manfully until right near the end, Craig broke through and won the U11 title plus the Patrick Rebello Cup. This was Craig's second major triumph in two years, as last year he had also won the Under 9.

With 14 MCCU based players in the Terafinal, 7 of these finishing in the top 15, the regions' youngsters performed well.

In addition William Bennet of Rutland won the Challengers A section, with Staffordshires' Suzy Blackburn 3rd. Manchester's Dominic Rabbitte was 3rd in the Challengers B section

Sabrina's game against Jonathan Lappage and Craig's game against Meg Owen may be found after the Challengers tables

UK CHESS CHALLENGE GAMES

Megan Owens v Craig Whitfield

Craig's knight has wandered into a strange position on b6 and now Megan becomes violent. 11 c5 N6d7 12 c6!? bxc6 13 dxc6 Nxc6 Megan has sacrificed a pawn to open up the centre and now produces a powerful pin on the black knight at c6. 14 Bc4+ Kh8 15 Bd5

Position after white's 15th move:

A difficult position for black. Craig extricates himself with an adroit tactical manoeuvre. 15... axb4! The continuation 16 Bxc6 bxc3 17 Bxa8 cxd2 18 Bxd2 Ba6! 19 Bc6 Bxf1 20 Qxf1 leaves black a pawn up. 16 Nb5 Bb7 17 Qc2 Ra6 18 Nc4 f4 The pressure on black's position is still intense but white should here consolidate with 19 f3. Instead Megan goes for broke with a powerful sacrifice. 19 Nxd6?! cxd6 20 Nxd6 Another scary position for Craig, with white having threats of Nxb7 and Nf7+. However, a cool counter attack turns the tables and dispels Megan's illusions. 20 ... Nd4! 21 Nxb7 Nxc2 22 Nxd8 Rxd8 And black, a piece ahead, went on to win the game.

Sabrina Chevannes v Jonathan Lappage

Jonathan had captured a hot pawn on b2 earlier in the game, and now had his two major pieces, the queen and the king, in a severely embarrassing position. In fact, white can even consider the queen sacrifice 1 Qxc6+?! bxc6 2 Rxa6!! on the grounds that 2 ... Qxa6 3 Rb8 is mate. Admittedly, things are not so clear if black replies with 2 ... Qb7 or 2 ... e5. Sabrina brought her last attacking piece into play with 1 Nb4 and now Lappage flicked in the spoiler 1... Qb6! attacking the rook and preparing to checkmate should white blunder with 2 Nxa6?? Qxb1! Here, 2 Rb5! followed by Na6 or Nxc6 looks destructive enough, but Sabrina chose a different course: 2 Rxa6! bxa6 3 Rb3 parrying the back row threats and turning the attention back on the black king again. 3 ... c5 4 Nxa6! Qa7 5 Rb8+ Qxb8 6 Nxb8 and black's position is now a smoking ruin. He tried his checkmate threat again, but could only hold out for a few more moves. 6 ... Rb7 7 Qxc5+ Kd8 8 Nc6+ Ke8 9 Nb4 e5 10 Qc8+ Ke7 11 Qxb7+ black resigned.
